

The American-Scandinavian Foundation Awards for Finns

The American-Scandinavian Foundation (ASF) is a publicly supported, nonprofit, organization that promotes international understanding through educational and cultural exchange between the U.S. and the Nordic Countries. The ASF offers over $500,000 in funding to Scandinavians to undertake study or research programs in the United States for up to one year. Awards are made in all academic fields on the graduate or post-graduate level, and in the arts. Candidates for awards from Finland are recommended to the ASF by the League of Finnish-American Societies.

Eligibility

- Applicants must be citizens of Finland.
- Applicants are required to have completed a minimum of a Bachelor's degree.

Terms of Award

The number and size of awards granted annually varies widely between countries. Contact the League of Finnish-American Societies for specific information regarding eligibility, award size and application deadlines, www.sayl.fi The ASF's Fellowship and Grants Division will be happy to assist with general inquiries, www.amscan.org.

Sources of ASF Funding for Finnish candidates:

- The Carl G. and Rikke Fredriksen Barth Fund
- The Finnish Fund
- The Martha and Jack McFall Fund
- The Thor and Saimi Soderholm Fund